

SESSS Ch show 19 - Bitch results

MPB (2 entries)

1. Glendinning's Plaiglen Encore. L&W baby girl who was one to please. She is proportionate and has all the makings of a first class bitch. Moved as she should and has that old fashioned appeal. Shall watch her progress with interest.
2. Corbett's Trimere Taylor Swift. Racier in build and of a different mould. Plenty to like and I'm sure will finish well. Preferred overall shape of 1.

Class 15 Puppy Bitch (4 entries)

1. Eastwood & Trueman's Eastfalla Rock My World. Feminine puppy that shows promise. Classic shape to head. Strength in neck and good shoulder placement, enough depth to body and good in coupling, quarters to develop, but she's only a baby. When she moved, came into her own with firm topline and sound, free flowing gait BPIS
2. Lucas' Gunning Maybe Baby. Much heavier in build than 1 and a little too much for me all over. None the less undeniably an ESS with appeal.
3. Parr's Gunning April Lady At Ashring
4. Crouch's Trimere Timeless With Kassan

JB (11 entries 1 abs)

1. Calvert's Calvdale Stowaway Magic. Very feminine with a super head and a nice arch to neck. Clean over the shoulder and pleasing return to upper arm, thus assisting an excellent front. Deep enough and neat over the loin. She moved well, another I will watch progress with interest. Quality bitch
2. Mitchell's Peasblossom Whisper. Very attractive and of good make and shape. Deep through the body and with great width to thighs. A bit of a handful on the move, but got her act together enough.
3. Shovel's Tiverstone Petit Muscat
4. Warrener's Waterswarren Whistle Berry
5. Weyman's Spuffing Tanqueray

YB (11 entries, 1 abs)

1. Hydon's Clentonian Pandemonium JW. A lovely surprise - don't recall seeing this B/W before. Pretty as a picture on the stand with aesthetically pleasing properties. Super head and expression with the kindest of eyes, so feminine and paid attention to her handler moving at an appropriate pace. She was well turned out, held her topline with good tail carriage, of a happy disposition, very nice indeed.
2. Mitchell's Peasblossom Untamed. Lovely young lady who fits the standard well. She too scored in head and overall proportionate body properties. Just need to settle on the move.
3. Shovel's Tiverstone Petit Muscat
4. Clarke's Tigerrock Strike A Pose

5. Thomas' Sybel De Syringa (ATC AV02741CHE)

NB (5 entries, 2 abs)

1. Eastwood & Trueman's Eastfalla Rock My World
2. Stradling's Beresford Splash Of Ginge. Rangy bitch who was very raw. Needs time to fill out and mature. Complete lack of furnishings did not help.
3. Calvdale Unequivocally

GB (3 entries)

1. Weyman's Spuffing Tanqueray. Well turned out B/W who had a decent head and eye. Good all through with nothing overdone. Scored over 2 in neck and shoulders
- 2, Toublic's Cobhay Dazzling Azalea. Old fashioned look about this bitch and does all that is asked of her. Just find her a little plain Jane in attitude.
3. Sander's Meonstoke Angelica

PGB (13 entries, 2 abs)

1. Walker's Beresford Night Nurse At Dexbenella My notes say "Where did she come from?" My surprise package of the day. Ultra feminine. Of correct size and pleasing to the eye. Loved her well worked head and expression, with correct shape to eye. So clean in outline and proportionate moderate body properties. She moved with correct footfall, held her topline and had the edge in the challenge with her "look at me" attitude. RES CC
2. Joyce's Kingsheath Total Diva At Felltops. No disgrace in her 2nd placing - A bitch that fills the eye for symmetry and type. She was more substantancially built than 1, but still reained femininity. She was in lovely condition. 1st had the edge in neck and shoulders.
3. Calvet's Calvdale Hot Momma
4. Gibson's Calvdale Rag Nymph
5. Topliss' Beresford Night Class

MLB (9 entries, 2abs)

1. Dunston's Seaspring Becalmed. Very close decision between 1&2. Both moderate and typical of the breed, maturity in body proportions won the day. Attractive headpiece with a melt your heart expression. She's well made all through and excels in rib and coupling. She moves soundly from a strong frame.
2. Conrad's Peasblossom Rumours At Strathnaver. Better in outline and hides nothing. Pretty young lady with everything in the right place. Plenty of time to trouble the best with her decent footfall and well held topline.
3. Mitchell's Barecho Odd Molly At Peasblossom
4. Richardson & Terry-Richardson's Cherishym Celaneo
5. Chaston's Cassapple Lindyhop

LB (13 entries, 3 abs)

1. Green's Kennair I Am I Said. Loved this gorgeous lady for type, size, balance, expression and joy of joys - fabulous movement. She is so well put together and no doubt is capable of a day's work. She is timeless i.e. in yester year she would have been a good example of the breed and in the present day conveys to me the moderate and balanced appeal that an English Springer possesses. Surely a Sh Ch in the making, it gave me much please to award her her first CC and RBIS

2. Calvert's Calvdale Heritage Of Folly JW. A different consideration altogether. Very feminine and full of quality. Has excellent front assembly, good in body, but not the strength in hind action as 1.
3. S. Corbett's Trimere Tictaboo
4. Ternent's Hunterheck Under A Spell JW
5. Mitchell & Payne's Peasblossom Ophelia

OB (8 entries, 1 abs)

1. Jackson's Sh Ch Mompesson Legacy. Typey, true to standard and with overall quality and substance. Her movement is effortless and she retains both femininity and strength, doesn't put a foot out of place and is in tune with her handler.
2. McCourt's Ir Sh Ch Woodspa Royal Ascot ShCM. Old fashioned (in a good way!) and most appealing outlook. Her head is full of work with desired chisel and fluting, kindest of eye and constructed well all through. Another who appealed greatly for type.
3. Corbett's Olliwa Ruthless With Trimere (IMP CZE)
4. Calvert's Calvdale Hot Pink JW
5. Green's Kennair Like A Diamond

VB (6 entries, 4 abs)

1. Taubman's Peasblossom Geisha At Meonstoke. This is such a decent bitch, good for size, shape and construction. She doesn't give away her age, moving soundly with verve. A credit to her owner.
2. Toublic's Cobhay Dahlia. Not the neck and shoulders of 1, but a decent bitch in most respects. Certainly built for a day's work and nicely presented.

Class 25 President Special Open Stakes Bitch (8 entries, 2 abs)

1. Dunston's Seaspring Becalmed
2. Wallis & Levene's Pendarlow Tiana. Young L/W bitch who was unplaced in a strong PG class, regardless had much to commend, she is decently made if a little long cast, strides out well and was well presented.
3. West's Grosbreuil Abricot Regal
4. Toublic's Cobhay Dazzling Azalea
5. Kibby's Tiverstone Ladys Delight
