Handling - Judge Lesley McCourt

Thank you to the committee for inviting me to judge the handling classes today and for the lovely flowers I was given.

I was pleased to have 7 juniors to assess. How lovely to see a filled JH class. I understand that for some of these youngsters it was their first time - I hope they enjoyed the experience and will continue with their training as they are the future handlers for our breed.

6 - 11 8 (1)

1 Kaitlin Nicholson

Such a smart accomplished handler, I was impressed with her attention to detail, she handled her dog sympathetically and followed my instructions to the letter. Her lines were strait and she shadowed the judge correctly. Our breeds movement should be effortless, well, this handlers movement was equally as effortless as her charge today, she is so light on her feet - it was a pleasure to watch.

2 Phoebe Toublic

This young lady has come on in leaps and bounds since I last saw her handle. She is another accomplished handler and like my winner she too followed my instructions correctly. Her lines were straight and her shadowing was also correct. I think she too has a good future.

3 Ellen Newlove

4 Toby Gowers

5 Sohpie Machray

Adult (2)

I was presented with too experienced handlers, both of whom carried out my instructions correctly, including the pattern work. I had great difficulty in splitting them, but my decision came down to my winners attention to my position at all times. Particularly when stacking her dog - she lined her dog up precisely in front of me. Well done to you both.
