Pedigree Dog Classes

The 5 Pedigree Dog Classes attracted a total entry of 67 dogs and were judged by ESS breed specialist Judge A. Each dog was identifiable only by ring number for judging purposes. Our judge kindly provided a critique which is presented below. Photos of the main winners and 1st to 5th in the classes follow this critique.

Judge A's Critique

'I was delighted to be invited to judge the 'Southern's' Virtual Charity Dog Show and grateful for the lovely entry of photos that came my way. It must be said that some of the photos did not do full justice to the dogs and yet some quality photos rather 'overtook' the eye. Nevertheless it was good fun for me and well done to everyone for making the effort for two very worthy causes.

Class 1: Puppy Dog (11 entries)

1st: No. 29, 11 months old. Liked his overall shape and balanced outline. Also his deep, square muzzle although just a little proud in forehead. Appears to have good shoulder angulation, good reach of neck and nice through stifle and hocks. His elbows fit neatly into a good body that has plenty of depth. Stood well and foursquare on neat feet. BPD

2nd: No. 160, 6 months old. I don't think his photo did him full justice but has a very good shape and outline for such a baby. His head profile looks promising. Liked his neat body and fore chest.

Class 2: Junior Dog (8 entries)

1st: No. 221. Eye-catching young boy with a lovely outline. His proportions are just right. Looks to have a pleasant masculine head from the profile with elegant neck flowing into good shoulder angulation. The photo gives the impression of good rib, loin and hind quarters. Tail-set looks a little low but that is being very picky on what is a very nice young dog.

2nd: No. 133. Not quite the eye-catcher of the 1st but looks to be a well put together springer. From the profile I like his head and general overall shape. Looked really well turned out that day with the sun on his back.

Class 3: Post Graduate Dog (12 entries)

1st: No. 155. Caught my eye straight away in this class. Lovely presentation and standing absolutely foursquare for his handler which shows his attributes to full advantage. Nice deep muzzle of good proportion to the length of his skull. Adequate neck and fore chest. Has depth through the chest, with elbows neatly set. Gives appearance of good rib, loin and well angulated hind quarters. All this mounted on nice tight feet.

2nd: No. 164. More flashy than the winner of the class and a pleasure to look at. Just get the impression from the photo he does not have quite the depth and body of the 1st. Nevertheless he looks good throughout.

Class 4: Open Dog (29 entries)

2nd: No. 202. I felt this black and white boy probably looks better than his photo suggested, because he is somewhat in shadow, and not quite standing foursquare . Nevertheless his head looks masculine yet refined. Elegant neck flows on to a great top-line. Good fore chest, deep body. His stance does not show is upper arm to its best advantage but I get the impression his shoulder placement is good. His rear end looks firm, set on neat hacks with tight feet fore and aft.

Class 5: Veteran Dog (7 entries)

1st: No. 253. Looking very good at 9 years of age and guess he has done a fair share of winning. Very good on the eye throughout. Pleasing head shape, nice through neck and shoulders. Plenty of depth in body and retaining a very good top-line and nice tight feet. BVD

2nd: No. 238. Tri-coloured boy - longer cast than winner, which just lets him down in top-line. Otherwise has a lot to like including a pleasant head profile, good reach of neck, good depth of chest.

Pedigree Bitch Classes

The 5 Pedigree Bitch Classes attracted a total entry of 94 bitches and were judged by ESS breed specialist Judge B. Each bitch was identifiable only by ring number for judging purposes. Our judge kindly provided a critique which is presented below. Photos of the main winners and 1st to 5th in the classes follow this critique.

Judge B's Critique

'What a delightful occupation for a lockdown! Thank you for giving me such a grand if sometimes rather testing time. That old saying about not having enough 'cards' was very true in most classes! I was asked to ignore whether I had previously judged the dogs but simply to compare the exhibits in the photographs. An old mentor always advised me to get the best picture I could of all my good dogs for posterity but I fully realise how difficult that exhortation can be! Sometimes the resolution was a bit low to allow me to fully inspect the picture or the angle of the photo probably affected the eventual result but I fully enjoyed looking at each and every one! Thank you!

Class 6: Puppy Bitch (18 entries)

1st: No. 226, 8 months old. Lovely make and shape from nose to tail this puppy is feminine and typical and standing in such an assured way all the better to display her obvious assets. BPB

2nd: No. 32, 8 months old. Close up decision this very typical and balanced youngster appealed greatly.

3rd: No. 203, 10 months old. This shapely individual is just what I expect to see in a promising bitch puppy.

Res: No. 136, ~10 months old. Much to like, standing balanced and free from exaggeration like a good one should.

VHC: No. 152. Another super youngster with clean lines she really pleases the eye and looks as if she would continue to develop well.

Class 7: Junior Bitch (17 entries)

1st: No. 33, 16 months old. Looks the finished article, simply glows with good health and everything is where it should be from lovely feet and pasterns upwards.

2nd: No. 272, 13 months old. Kudos indeed for any owner able to stack their juvenile in what appears to be a kitchen environment! I liked the proportions and outlook of this exhibit

3rd: No. 262. Not perhaps as forward as the winners but shapely with the look of a fit and active type that should progress well.

Res: No. 227, 17 months old. Could not see the feet on this one sadly but never the less has all the qualities I look for with a feminine headpiece and seemingly well bodied and smart.

VHC: No. 108, 16 months old. Another missing her feet but a tidy individual who scores in most departments.

Class 8: Post Graduate Bitch (15 entries)

1st: No. 228, almost 3 yrs old. Racy but not exaggerated. Very pretty with soft expression and good skull and foreface, I forgave her lack of feet in the photo because she excelled otherwise for me with that lovely flowing topline, a bitch you would enjoy showing and having in your maternity wing

2nd: No. 263. Smart, well proportioned individual, who pushed hard, and looks like she would be very good to go over

3rd: No. 205, 3 yrs old. Strong headed individual, good height to length ratios, a likeable sort who takes the eye.

Res: No. 244, 2 yrs old. Intriguing because has so much to like for make and shape but not taken from the most flattering angle to fully assess her finer points.

VHC: No. 86, nearly 3 yrs old. I kept coming back to this one and she therefore made the cut, has such an honest head and I like her frame and rear assembly.

Class 9: Open Bitch (28 entries)

1st: No. 34, 3 yrs old. Clearly one for whom the standard could have been written, I wish that she were mine and I am sure to meet her in real life would not disappoint. Gorgeous and with undeniable presence! BB

2nd: No. 87, 4 yrs old. This one has an almost timeless quality. I cannot find anything that does not appeal, she fills the eye and is another very lovely example

3rd: No. 229, 3 yrs old. Clearly another well made individual of high quality who is not disgraced here, has all the essentials in all the right places.

Res: No. 119, 3 yrs old. Another classy specimen who has many top qualities that are very clear to see, well bodied and stands beautifully balanced.

VHC: No. 231, nearly 3 yrs old. It is splendid to be so spoilt for choice. Another treat for the eye she looks feminine and good to handle and might change places on any other day.

Class 10: Veteran Bitch (16 entries)

1st: No. 232, 8 yrs old. Stylish and looks to be of the highest quality wearing her years very, very lightly. Epitomises the standard, ultra feminine and typical and in the photo looks to be in superb condition. BVB

2nd: No. 230, 8 yrs old. Upstanding and presents well with all the attributes that a good one should have

3rd: No. 109, 8 yrs old. Lovely type, very pleasing outline with super rear assembly, I love to see them standing so well over their feet.

Res: No. 37, 7 yrs 2 mths old. IAppeals for make and shape, I like her head piece and good flowing backline.

VHC: No. 93, 9 yrs old. I wish my photo was just a little bit clearer because what I can discern looks to have the b desired breed characteristics in a pleasing wrapper.
